

STATEMENT REGARDING RUSSIAN AND BELARUSIAN ATHLETE ELIGIBILITY

In continuation with the policy put in place on March 2, 2022 and in line with the ongoing recommendations by the International Olympic Committee and World Triathlon regarding the participation of Russian and Belarusian athletes in international competition, all Russian and Belarusian athletes continue to be disallowed from participation in all IRONMAN World Championship and IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship events until further notice. In addition, age group athletes are not allowed to compete under the Russian or Belarusian flag at any IRONMAN or IRONMAN 70.3 events, and all Russian and Belarusian professional athletes are ineligible to compete at any IRONMAN or IRONMAN 70.3 triathlon events until further notice.